ARCHIVE COLLECTION

designed by Nelly Maye

Sacha designed by Nelly Maye.

Inspired by Rothko, overlays, color and contrast create depth and intensity. The choice of the line, sometimes clear, sometimes faded brings vibration and movement. Playing on a "mise en abyme" effect recreating the essence of the rug, utilizing the energy of hand-knotting and the expertise of the artisan.

NELLY MAYE

After studying at the Academie Charpentier in Paris, she graduated at the Beaux Arts School of Bordeaux and briefly trained at the Politecnico of Milano. She then worked in collaboration with the designer Emmanuel Gallina. With a real passion for art, architecture and design, she decided to start a career as a free lance designer.
